SATURDAY MORNING, DEC. 1865

Soldiers in The Soldiers

In the heyday of hostility in the South, scarce any meaner or more ill used treatment could be exhibited than that lately tried to be extended—in spirit—to the companies of soldiers just detailed by Gen. Connor on reconnoisances through the southern counties of San Pete and surroundings, for the protection of those settlements Ophir only a month or two ago were attacked by Black Hawk's band of savages, who made raids on settlers. Company C, 1st Batt. Nev. Cavalry, Captain [illegible] and Lieutenant [illegible] Freeman, [illegible] City to Fort Ephraim, San Pete Valley, had occasion to stop over night at Manti, a Mormon village. The Captain's lady being along with him, and the night being extremely cold, entertainment was sought at the [illegible] for which the Captain offered willingly any price for lodging or for house room, but the clannish Mormons, to a man, and headed by the Bishop [illegible] Governor, ludicrously refused because the military uniform was visible. Although there were scores of capacious dwelling houses, vacant rooms and tenements that might be rented under the [illegible] of the occasion, No, there is not a single place in our town that you can get her in, nor yourself neither. Take those hostile heathens in obedience to the deep-seated enmity against those wearing the "uniform" of the Government.

Self-protection being the first law of nature, with Capt. D. he remonstrated on the ground of common humanity and the [illegible] American freedom until the scene of Church absolutism, considering discretion the better part of valor, consulted among themselves, and finally the Bishop tendered him the shelter of his roof. Before that, and while the parties were "reasoning the matter," the people said, "you soldier men had better keep slow, and away from our settlements." One of the more humane and loyal [illegible] overhearing, could not help but [illegible] conversation that "well, Captain, you know what blame we encounter and how we are advised, you know what these people all are, under the way they're taught." It was impossible to buy produce or forage at this place, however high the prices offered, the Mormons being dead set on selling nothing at all to 'em. Next day the company marched to Ephraim, two miles off, [illegible] of the place prohibited entertainment, seduce and carry off everything they could, and [illegible] were to be kept open, and no forage or provisions there be sold them, no matter how many "government greenbacks" they might offer for the same.

There, and Springville adjoining, it was impossible to purchase anything necessary for subsistence on the scout. The Bishops and their brats of serfs would neither, let the soldiers have a thing at any price almost, just because they were soldiers. The darkest, deadest and most damnable hostility was manifested against the [illegible] who went to reconnoitre those wilds for protection of the settlements from recurrences of those recent Indian raids upon them. One of the old "Bishop," at Springville, who had nine wives, (four of them sisters and one a daughter of the old "amalgamationist" finally rented the [illegible] for $9 a month, which he had offered to a civilian for $20.

The question is, how long, oh! how long shall Government suffer this state of thing to last, is its own free territory?

How long shall this insubordination, this [illegible] Government, be allowed to [illegible] "gentiles" be allowed to dam the tide of western enterprise and damn the sovereignty of the great Nation? Let Congress and people [illegible] how long shall republican civilization suffer such avowed contempt, silenced per jury and incestuous Polygamy to pen up the progress of this nation's highway, thus far controlled by

"[illegible]"

Lord Monck Mansion.—The [illegible] Governor of the British Royal Academy has [illegible] several attack of pneumonia and dysentery during his visit to Milan, [illegible] was treated by three local physicians, by bleeding, blistering, mercury and starvation. After [illegible] he [illegible] to an alarming state of prostration. Lady Monck, daughter of [illegible] of London, who [illegible], by a stimulating and [illegible] treatment, succeeded in restoring her [illegible].

A Californian Fortune.—The uncertainty attendant on fortune making in California is illustrated by a remark of the [illegible] lucky possessor of the Morgan estate: "Why, said General Frost, I came to [illegible] to California [illegible] was worth nothing, and now I owe [illegible] millions of dollars.

Two Hangings in One Town.—Nashville [illegible] the residence of "Bill Foote" and [illegible] Foote and [illegible] years [illegible] to [illegible]

Mormon Question.

[illegible] Mormon [illegible] Congress.

[illegible] before the eyes of [illegible] country at the [illegible] Congress are [illegible] opposed to the [illegible] of Mormon [illegible], disobedience and disloyalty. The sovereign nation is awakening to its trust, and are long must wipe the foul and shameful stain of Polygamy from America's escutcheon. The inimical institution to both the country's pride and progress has been spared too long, but retributive justice has at last [illegible] God, begun to show it was not dead but sleeping. At Washington, the while, its case will be attended to, we are much mistaken in the indications daily showing themselves the country over. At Washington, just now, it is the next thing on the tapis to be dealt with as avenged is as it has dealt with "treason," and the government for this score of years past. Yes, the government and civilization has a "score" to settle with it which in the [illegible] shall cause these insubordinate old hierarchs and half-breeches to quail and come to [illegible]. The following is from Col. Forney's (M. C. from Pennsylvania) influential editorial, forwarded from the floors of Congress to the Philadelphia Press, Nov. 25th. Read it as indicative of the general feeling at the Federal Capital. God grant and hasten that bringing Utah under the sole and exclusive jurisdiction of the United States civil and military authority!" This noble territory has too long lain in the dust of absolute obedience to the bogus Autocrat who, using the immunities of the Organic Act to abuse both Government and gentiles, has established an [illegible] more exclusive and obnoxious than was ever slavery in the South:

The Mormon Question.

I have more than once called attention to the condition of things in Utah, and predicted that the time would come when the National authority would be forced to take [illegible] in the [illegible] of Mormonism" by the throat, and bring it sullenly to [illegible] with its dead relative and friend—Slavery. That time, is here, or will soon be here. The very worst spirit is being shown by the Mormon leaders, and fears are entertained that owing to the small force of United States troops in the territory, there may be a rising of the [illegible] against [illegible] as are there. Mr. Conlay and his party, when in Utah some months ago, was assured by Brigham Young and others, of their ultra loyalty, but the promises [illegible] intended to deceive. As late as August 28, Smith, one of the [illegible] reported as saying, on Sunday, August 28 that the South was right: the Northern army burned and destroyed everything in its [illegible], and [illegible] all their women. They would be here some day to steal the fair women of Utah in like manner. Old and young should [illegible] himself, in a [illegible] at the same time, uttered the following sentence:

"[illegible] Government [illegible] dead, his south rail-roads and [illegible] and ammunition, and plenty of it, and cannon, too, and would use them. He was quiet. The Governor of this territory was [illegible], and could do nothing. He (Brigham) was the real Governor of this people and by the Most High, he would be Governor of this territory forever and ever. If the Gentiles did not like this they could leave and go to hell. Nine-tenths of the people of the Territory were Southern sympathizers—the North was wrong, and the people sympathized with the South."

[illegible] correspondent of the Tribune, writing from Salt Lake City, closes with the following recapitulation:

"I have [illegible] that [illegible] to cause the subject to [illegible] importance and [illegible] the attention of the people. If the condition of things in Utah was thoroughly comprehended, I believe that a powerful public sentiment which would force Congress and the Administration into [illegible] measures. Indeed it would excite so much indignation that [illegible] with undue harshness and severity, without wise consideration for the sincerity and honest intentions of those misguided masses, and even many of their nominal [illegible]. Brigham and the associates are living in open, defiant violation of the laws of the United States.

"2. The [illegible] leaders intend [illegible] to [illegible] and [illegible] and duty of resistance by force of arms, [illegible] to make the law operative.

"3. They are drilling and arming the entire people into a complete and efficient military organization.

"4. [illegible] keeps in important Federal offices men who [illegible] violate the law, and systematically perjure themselves in taking the oath of office. Not only does the public interest suffer financially, but only are the ends of justice frustrated, but our whole [illegible] authority has solemnly enacted that polygamy is a crime, and the Government makes itself [illegible].

On the 12th of June 1857, Judge Douglas, when [illegible] to [illegible] Buchanan in [illegible] the Kansas and Utah [illegible] gave the following as his remedy for the latter. He would first [illegible] the organic act, absolutely and unconditionally blotting out of existence the [illegible] government, and bringing Utah under the sole and exclusive jurisdiction of the United States' civil and military authori-

A Wife to Spare Somewhere.—The polygamy question in Utah must be overcome in some shape, and it is quite possible that the General Government will [illegible] her in two, &c. &c.—[Idaho Statesman.]

No pray don't cut Utah in two, that would make [illegible] instead of one.—[Salt Lake Telegraph.]

Exchange [illegible]. Shall never be [illegible] civilized State until!—[Sacramento Bee.]

Aunt—Now, Ulysses, you should do as I do. Whenever anyone follows me I turn round, and [illegible] looks, and be it or [illegible] immediately!

NO DESPATCHES.—The telegraph line being down yesterday, east of Bridger, leaves us without any telegrams this morning.

MORMONDOM is significantly destitute of the greatest motors of modern civilization, namely: Cultivated women with any stamina beyond serfs!

COLD.—The thermometer at Fort Bridger, at nine P. M., 14th inst., was 33° below zero; the coldest record ever made at that Post.

CHRISTIAN church services will be held at Independence Hall, at Camp Douglas, to-morrow, Sunday, at the accustomed hours, by Rev. N. McLeod.

DIED in Hospital, at Camp Douglas, on Saturday last, Brig. Frederick Snyder, of [illegible] Vt. The deceased while on the march to Provo City, U. T., received a severe contusion of the head, through a fall we understand, which caused his death.

MORE NEW GOODS, BARGAINS!—New goods, new style prints, choice teas, table and staple groceries, and general goods, just opened and for sale, at extra low rates, at the "New York Store," two doors above the "Auction House," East Temple street, near 2d South Read what is said in new advertisement.

"Bigamy, double or treble marriage," is what incestuous Polygamy calls keeping six or a score of women—as "wives," by "proxy" and "sealing," for "time" or for "eternity." To amalgamate or miscegenate unnaturally, with four sisters of the same wife, and with deceased brother's wife and daughter—is softened down to but "building up the Kingdom!" Speaking of marrying, we find in Mormon authorities that we have been reading, that there are four kinds of this barbaric custom here. First, the glorifying; second, the retroactive; third, the [illegible]; and fourth, the redeeming proxy. By the former is meant the act by which a Mormon marries for time, the female survivor of a marriage made for "eternity"; the issue of such a "marriage" belonging, in heaven, not to their natural father, but to the first husband, who may possibly be another! The retroactive proxy applies to women who, desirous of becoming, in eternity he brides of persons who have died in the odour of sanctity, marry living [illegible] of the deceased! It was thus that Brigham Young married in time a woman who desired to be, in eternity, one of the Queens of Joseph Smith! The children under this "proxy" belong also not to the natural but the "eternal" husband. Some of the saintesses even go so far as to become the eternal wives of Abraham, and to rear up in Utah little brats who will be the legitimate children of the great Patriarch!

The substitutive proxy [illegible] is what incestuous Polygamy calls keeping six or a score of women—as "wives," by "proxy" and "sealing," for "time" or for "eternity." To amalgamate or miscegenate unnaturally, with four sisters of the same wife, and with deceased brother's wife and daughter—is softened down to but "building up the Kingdom!" Speaking of marrying, we find in Mormon authorities that we have been reading, that there are four kinds of this barbaric custom here. By the former is meant the act by which a Mormon marries for time, the female survivor of a marriage made for "eternity"; the issue of such a "marriage" belonging, in heaven, not to their natural father, but to the first husband, who may possibly be another! The retroactive proxy applies to women who, desirous of becoming, in eternity he brides of persons who have died in the odour of sanctity, marry living [illegible] of the deceased! It was thus that Brigham Young married in time a woman who desired to be, in eternity, one of the Queens of Joseph Smith! The children under this "proxy" belong also not to the natural but the "eternal" husband. Some of the saintesses even go so far as to become the eternal wives of Abraham, and to rear up in Utah little brats who will be the legitimate children of the great Patriarch!

The substitutive proxy [illegible] official benefit of the Mormon missionaries. These heroic laborers in the [illegible] gation of polygamy and the devil alone knows what all, are often ordered to foreign countries by the heads of the Church here, so that they have to leave their wives, [illegible] to twenty, and start on a distant "mission," for a few years. Seldom how much their families might have been increased, during their absence, [illegible] a part of their so-called, ever changing "revelation" to have a representative "agent" or proxy substituted to do "family duty" for the [illegible] during his absence in strange lands! Accommodating idea, aint it, for to be revelation? The redeeming proxy is a consequence of that other ingenious humbug, that there can be no salvation without wives. That is to say, that those who die without having had a number of women, must remain in the next world, in a sort of purgatory, unless some kind, considerate, saintly old sog of a—scheming [illegible] according to the [illegible] wagon [illegible] see man, can be married, "for eternity" to another fellow of her choice; but the thing is so diametrically and outrageously inhuman, that—well we must wade through the filthy fornications of this thing, by [illegible] of Gulliver's Travels.

THE present fare from San Francisco to New York [illegible] is as follows: First cabin, outside rooms, $210.00; (gold.) ditto, inside rooms, $162.50; second cabin, $90.; steerage $60

New Hampshire [illegible] gains, before the holidays are over, and therefore we refer them to the new advertisement of a big [illegible] of new goods received and to be sold immediately by John Cunnington and W. GOOD TEMPLARS, ATTENTION!!—Camp Douglas Lodge, No. 1 O. G. T., through the kind permission of Col. Potter, Commanding Camp Douglas, will hold their regular meetings at the Theater on Tuesday evening of each week. We hope to see a full attendance of the present members on next Tuesday, also a large list [illegible]

Remember, soldiers, the Temperance cause, and do all in your power to banish Rum with its evil influence from Camp Douglas. Let Camp Douglas Lodge swell its number of faithful members this winter.

The Fenians are [illegible] disturbed just now by a schism among themselves, particularly at New York. Are sorry to see it; but it seems to savor of the Old and Young Ireland parties of 1845. It is ominous of either one thing or the other, and that, too, easily perceived. Speaking on this subject, we see the Fenian Sisterhood is [illegible] though They gave a grand ball in Buffalo, the other day, which was largely attended, where the green flag of Erin and the Stars and Stripes waved in unison and triumph. A Harp and Eagle were displayed over the Red Cross inverted!

OUTSPOKEN ENOUGH.—The Telegraph may think the country is "safe," because he found the Mormon Legislature at work [illegible] other day, harmoniously huddled together, (like a lot of sheep penned under their Great Mogul Shepherd,) legislating about estrays and "pounds" and pregnant questions of that class and culture! He contrasts this mere machine, automaton Assembly of the "Church," with the vigorous workings, debates and differences of independent legislatures in the States and then [illegible] and says, so complacently that it would make a monkey laugh—

"How [illegible] City to the other capitals of States and Territories! Here, all is quiet."

Yes, so is the mummies in the mausoleums at the wooden shell in the "Hall of Statues!" They have no minds or wills of their own, nor no heart in the enterprise save so far as taxing thoroughfares to [illegible] tion and keep this territory to themselves! But, what's the need of our saying so? Doesn't the Telegraph man betray himself in the very ending of the article above alluded to, and adds—

"The [illegible] is [illegible] with the foreshadowing of that day when he shall rule whose right it is to reign!"

There's the intentions of the Mormons for you! What do Gov. Durkee and President Johnson think of that?

Mr. Mosby suppints a "Psalm of Sadness" for his Friends South.

SAINT REST, (which is the Stait uv } Nashville, Dec. 10 1865. }

The utter and abgect state uv prostitood into which the Dimocrisy of the South, makes a day uv fastin appropit. Ef the Lord is ever a goin 2 help us now's his time.

I hy clerkly eleventh on the Church South deside to appint a day uv fastin and sprayer, I submit the following as a sam uv agony, approprit for the occasion:

On the street I see a nigger!

On his back a coat uv blue and he carryeth a musket.

He is a Prince Colord, and he haileth me ez ove having authority.

And my tender daughter spit on him, and to be arrested her, and he draggeth her to the guard house.

My eyes dwell on him, an my sole is a artesian well uv woe; it gusheth with grief.

For this accursed nigger! I bought him with a price.

Alas! that nigger is out uv normal condishun, he is a star out of his sfere, which sweepeth through the pelitikel hevens, smashing things.

Normally he wuz wuth gold nigger wuz the basis thereof.

Wo is me! I owned him, sole, body, wuz mine, likewise his labor and froots thereof.

He wuz my conkebine.

The normal result uv the conkebinage I scold combining pleasure and profit in a high degree.

And on the price thereof I p'ayed poker, and drank mint gooleps, and rode in gorgeous chariots, and wore purple and fine linen every day.

Wuz this miscegenashen or niggerasepality for me? For she wuz mine, even as my ox or my horse, or my sheep, and her increase woz mine even as wuz theirs.

Ablishen miscegenashun elevates the nigger wench to his level. I did it for gain, which degraded her unredly.

And when the wife uv my buzzum lifted up her voice in complaint, sayin, "Lo, I am abused—this day hast the price uv the infant chattle wood buy a diamond pin with which to stop her yawp.

And my boys followed in my footsteps, and grate wuz the mix, but profitable.

But my dreams is bustid.

The nigger is free, and demands wages for the work uv his hands.

His wife is free, and she can decide whether she'll cleave to her husband or be my conkebine.

Yesterday I met her come to me, and lo! she remarkt: "Go 'way, white man, or I bust yer head."

Her children are free — thay are mine, likewise, but I can't sell 'em on the block to the highest bidder.

They say I violated the holiest and hiest instinks uv our nacher; he interposed a proclamation atween father and child.

We took the heathen from Afreka, and [illegible] Christians uv 'em. Wo to him who stopt us in our misshunary work.

It is writtun—"Kin the Ethope change his skin? I do—I wuz a changing it for him—I and my fathers, and we had methud it down to a bright yeller.

Dark is my fucher.

I obeyed the grate law uv Labor, ez I surved in the army, by substitute—now shall I hev to stane my hands with labor, or starve.

In what am I better than a Northern mud sill?

I kin git no more diamond rings for the wife of my buzzum, and she yawpeth continously.

I must sell my cattles with pots and kittles in the kitchen.

Weighed down with wo, she dies [illegible] in silence.

She askes uv me comfort—what kin I say, when [illegible] confiskate coldefrate scrip?

Save us from Massachewayts; which is bonery and also very cussid.
